

Raised in West Carrollton, Ohio, David is a graduate of Georgetown College, Kentucky. He received his MDiv from Lexington Theological Seminary, and a Certificate in Advanced Theological Studies from Eden Theological Seminary, St. Louis.

David is married to the amazing Tammy Tobin Woodard. Together, they have 5 kids and 3 grandkids. He is the Lead Pastor of Affton Christian Church, St. Louis, where he has served for 19 years.

For the past several years, David has served as chair of the Ministry Discernment Team – helping to shepherd those going through the Commissioned Minister process, and on the Regional Commission on the Order of Ministry.

His interests include spending time with his family, playing golf, and science fiction; namely, all things Star Trek and Doctor Who.

David is committed to nurturing and strengthening relationships among clergy, congregations, and the Region.
